

Graduate Opportunities

Monday, 03 November 2008

We currently have openings for graduates and recently qualified engineers to join our expanding dynamic engineering team.

Working with Argon will have you in position where you will be working on some of the most advanced robotic and automation projects available in Australia. You should have an active interest in the field, be a recent graduate and be capable of working in a team environment and/or independently as required. Working for Argon Technology will provide a challenging and rewarding opportunity for a person looking to expand their boundaries. The job entails project and contract work.

Overview: Robotics & automation projects Career progression Large & small projects Mining & resources Energetic, driven and supportive development environment

If you are an enthusiastic individual who enjoys working in a dynamic environment which involves varied job applications and are interested in industrial robotics & automation applications please contact us with your details and experience.

Argon Technology is an AS/NZS ISO 9001:2000 accredited innovative engineering solutions provider. We are about initiating and driving change, providing systems and services tailored to our client's requirements. Argon Technology's operations include the provision of robotic, automation, processing and control system solutions to industry. If link above does not appear in your browser please visit the Contact Us page.